

Substance Abuse Treatment and Support

Austin Resource Center for the Homeless Streets of Hope – Recovery Support Groups

500 E 7th Street
Austin, TX 78701
512-305-4131

Must be in Case Management with Front Steps, schedule intake time with your case manager.
Afternoon group: 2:00-4:00pm on Mon, Weds, and Thurs. (10 weeks)
Afternoon group: 4:30-6:30pm on Mon. and Weds. (15 weeks)
Educational/Support groups for chemical dependency and substance abuse.

Alcoholics Anonymous meeting at ARCH

Thursdays at 8:00pm

Oak Springs Program

3000 Oak Springs Drive
Austin, TX 78702

512-804-3526 or/512-804-3537; Call for info; Mon-Fri 8:00am-5:00pm

Outpatient substance abuse treatment for adults with drug or alcohol dependency. Case management, individual and group counseling, education and life skills training.

Methadone Maintenance Treatment Program

1631 E 2nd Street - Bldg A
Austin, TX 78702

512-804-3380; Call for info

Medication hours: Mon - Fri 6:00am - 9:50am; Sat 6:30am - 9:00am

Dispenses Methadone to adults with an opiate/heroin addiction to end their dependence with proper medical supervision. Counseling, medical supervision, education, and orientation to Narcotics Anonymous. Education on HIV infections.

CARE Program

1631 E. 2nd Street Bldg. E
Austin, TX 78702

512-804-3650; Business hours Mon – Fri 8:00am- 5:00pm; testing by appt. only

Free, anonymous HIV antibody testing and counseling, Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA), case management, street outreach, referral and assistance to addiction treatment services, mental health case management, relapse prevention counseling, Journey Outpatient Level III and II treatment programs, HIV education and training, and risk reduction materials (such as condoms, cleaning kits, and brochures). Services are provided at no cost.

Austin Recovery Center

8402 Cross Park Drive (North Austin location)
Austin, TX 78754

512-821-1739; Call for info

Admissions: Mon-Fri. 8:00 am – 1:00 pm

Detox facility: 24hrs/7days

Medical detoxification for chemical dependency for adults. Length of stay is generally 5-8 days.

Edith Royal Campus – 8402 Cross Park Drive 512-821-1739:

Residential services for women with drug/alcohol dependency. Accepts dual diagnosis patients. Transitional housing is available to help women find employment while continuing recovery work. Length of stay is generally 30-45 days.

Three-month intensive residential treatment program for women with drug/alcohol dependency. One or two children ages 12 or younger are welcome. Individual, family and group counseling, support groups, and parenting classes for residents

13207 Wright Road, Buda, TX 787610; 512-821-1739/512-243-1911 Men's residential Program : Residential services for men with alcohol/drug dependency. Accepts dual diagnosis patients. Combines specialized group and individual counseling sessions along with lectures and workshops. Clients stay an average of 21 to 35 days. Day treatment may be included when appropriate.

3207 W Slaughter Lane (South Austin location); 512-821-1739; Call for info
Long term residential program for men with stays up to 90 days.

Cornerstone Counseling, Inc.

2417 Ashdale Drive

Austin, TX 78757

512-420-0803; Call for info; Mon - Thu 9:00am – 6:00pm, Fri 8:00am - 4:00pm Outpatient substance abuse treatment for adults and adolescents with substance abuse and dependency problems. 6 week ILP program and 8 week relapse program. Fees on sliding scale based on income and other factors.

Hill Country Intergroup- Alcoholics Anonymous

1825 Fortview #104

Austin, TX 78704

512-444-0071; Alcoholics Anonymous hotline; 24hrs/7days

Information about 12-step Alcoholics Anonymous support groups throughout Central Texas for people who have alcohol dependency. Call to find location of an AA meeting, or visit website at www.austinaa.org.

Central Texas Area of Narcotics Anonymous

603 W 13th Street #1A-284

Austin, TX 78701

512-480-0004; 512-480-0007 (Spanish); Helpline is usually 24hrs/7days

Help line and information on support group meetings throughout Central Texas. Meeting schedule available at www.ctana.org.

Bluebonnet Trails Community MHMR Center Outreach, Screening, Assessment and Referral

56 East Avenue

Austin, TX 78701

1-800-841-1255; Substance abuse hotline; 24hrs/7days

Call local or hotline number for info.

Confidential alcohol and drug screenings and assessments, crisis intervention, motivational counseling and brief intervention, education and support, identification of appropriate levels of care/service in the community, and assistance in obtaining care/service in the community.

Salvation Army Adult Rehabilitation Center

4216 South Congress Avenue

Austin, TX 78745

512-447-2272; Call for info; Mon – Sun; Facility: 24hrs/7days

Residential drug and alcohol rehabilitation program. Includes meals, clothes, and recreational activities. Clients are required to participate in 40 hours per week of work therapy, recovery meetings, religious meetings, individual counseling, and drug testing. Minimum commitment is 90 days.

Lifeworks Street Outreach

408 W 23rd Street

Austin, TX 78705

512-735-2400; Speak with a counselor 24hrs/7days

Outreach services for homeless youth, ages 10-23. Includes counseling, support groups, HIV testing and education, bus passes, clothing, personal hygiene supplies, needle cleaning kits, substance abuse prevention education, and case management.

Downtown Austin Community Court

719 E 6th Street

Austin, TX 78701

512-974-4879

Mon - Fri 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Provides funding for substance abuse treatment for misdemeanor offenders referred by the Court.

Central Texas Veterans Healthcare System

2901 Montopolis Drive

Austin, TX 78741

512-389-1010; Call for info or walk in; Mon - Fri 7:30am - 4:00pm

Chemical dependency services for veterans. Referrals and transportation to veterans Domiciliary program in Temple.

Austin Area Mental Health Consumers
Self Help and Advocacy Center (SHAC)

3205 South 1st Street

Austin, TX 78704

512-442-3366

Peer to peer support groups according to diagnosis to those with Chronic Depression, Schizo-affective disorder and Schizophrenia. Computers with internet access and email to those with mental disabilities. Training and help in obtaining an email address. Creative writing and art classes.

HMC updated 5/27/09