The Trinity Center is a faith-based, Christian organization, serving the spiritual, emotional, and physical needs of those experiencing homelessness and poverty in Austin. They offer companionship, community, food, and – for those who desire it- a place of worship for individuals who have lost the comfort of home.

The Trinity Center is now offering programs 6 days per week (Sunday – Friday), and is open Mondays and Tuesdays for women and Wednesdays through Fridays for men and women. Please see the schedule for specific program information and times. In addition to Mondays, when breakfast and a clothing closet are offered to women, on Tuesdays, breakfast and financial assistance is offered for 5 women per week at a support group called H.E.A.R.T (Help End Abusive Relationship Tendencies).
